

YOUR BIG CHALLENGE

Écrire et réagir
à l'écrit

Write the end of a dragon story. WB → p. 69

→ You make the choices and become the author!
Write the end of your dragon story.

2

A young knight named George decided to discover the treasure. One day he walked off on his horse to go to the very high mountain. George arrived at the foot of the mountain the next morning and...

1

Once upon a time there was a dark cave on a very high mountain. In that cave lived a dragon. The dragon protected something.

- a. It was a great treasure: go to card 2.
- b. It was a beautiful princess called Vicky: go to card 3.

3

The princess wanted to escape from the cave, but the dragon was always there to stop her and the mountain was too dangerous to climb down. One night she attached a rope to the dragon's leg and...

1

Get ready.

- ▶ Choose the beginning of the story.
 - a. Read card 1 and choose your option.
 - b. Read the beginning of your story on card 2 or 3.
 - c. Note down all the important information.

Tips

- ▶ Utilise les wordmaps p. 118.
- ▶ Liste les verbes que tu sais conjuguer au passé et que tu pourrais utiliser.

2

Perform!

- ▶ Write the end of the story.
 - a. Add details to make the characters interesting.
 - b. Describe the setting and atmosphere.
 - c. Imagine the characters' actions and the consequences.
 - d. Who wins in the end? Make your choice and write it down.

J'apprends à... → p. 138