

Election Time Activities A2+

A. The Election Process

Read the election calendar box and the article and fill in this diagram explaining the process for election of the U.S. president. Use the terms from the box.

- American voters ■ Election Day (8 November) or general election
- Democrat primaries ■ (Candidates for the election): Candidate 1, Candidate 2, Candidate 3 etc...
- Republican primaries
- Inauguration ceremony
- President elected ■ American voters registered as Republicans
- Electoral College ■ American voters not registered for a party
- Party Conventions

B. True or false?

Correct the sentence when it is false. Read the article and correct the sentence when it is false.

1. This election is historic because the two candidates are out of the ordinary: one is an inexperienced politician and billionaire, the other is a woman. T F

2. President Obama has been President for one term. T F

3. Hillary Clinton worked with Barack Obama in his government. T F

4. Bernie Sanders is a Democrat senator. T F

5. Donald Trump is a Republican, therefore he is left-wing. T F

6. Bernie was very popular with the older generation. T F

7. Donald is a famous university professor. T F

8. Hillary Clinton's running mate is Mike Pence. T F