

Animals Have Got Talent!

A1+⇌A2

In a town where all the inhabitants are different types of animals, a koala has a theatre with big financial problems. He decides to organise a musical talent competition to find the best singer and get publicity for the theatre.

The koala, Buster Moon, loves musical theatre. But he isn't good with money. When he announces the talent competition, he gets lots of candidates. There's a problem though: his secretary made a mistake on the brochure. It says the winner will receive $100,000. But Buster only has $1,000!

Help

there's a problem though (exp)
but there's a problem.

And the Finalists Are...

Meet the candidates Buster chooses for the grand final.

Two pigs with big personalities. Rosita has 25 children and dreams of being a singer.

A punk-rock teenage porcupine. She sings with her boyfriend, Lance. But Buster only chooses Ash for the final.

★ Meena ★

A teenage elephant who has a fabulous voice but is very shy. Will she find the courage to sing on stage?

★ Mike ★

A mouse jazz musician. He's small but he makes a big sound with his saxophone and he has lots of confidence in his talent.

★ Johnny ★

A teenage gorilla. His dad is a gangster and wants Johnny to be a member of the gang. But Johnny just wants to sing.

Help

confidence (n) when you know you are good, you are not afraid, you have confidence in your capacities.

stage (n) platform in a theatre where the actors or musicians present the show.